GRANT APPLICATION

Application Guidelines and Instructions:

This grant is intended to support compliance with the Criminal Justice Reform Bill’s restructuring of student discipline and reduce noncompliant, explosive and aggressive behavior in Norfolk County Public High Schools.

Ten public high schools in Norfolk County will be selected. Selection will be based on the district’s demonstration of need, capacity, and readiness to participate in the training and coaching.

To apply, please complete this form and attach on department letterhead the following information:

- School’s need for this programming
- School’s readiness and capacity to follow through with training and coaching

APPLICATION DEADLINE: June 7, 2019

Please mail application materials to: Assistant District Attorney Jennifer Rowe
