

THE NORFOLK DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S OFFICE AND THE QUINCY BAR ASSOCIATION PRESENT

A TRAINING ON WHAT TO EXPECT WITH THE NEW EXPUNGEMENT STATUTE

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 13, 2018
5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

QUINCY ELKS
254 Quarry Street, Quincy, MA
QUARRY ROOM (Lower Hall)

Norfolk District Attorney Michael W. Morrissey and the Quincy Bar Association are proud to host a free training on the new expungement statute enacted as part of the Criminal Justice Reform Bill.

Hear firsthand from the Trial Court and Probation Department about the new expungement procedures. You will learn who is eligible for expungement, what types of expungement are available, where to file petitions, when a hearing may be required, and what an expungement order will mean.

Who should attend?

- Attorneys from all practice areas will find this training helpful.
- Court and probation personnel will find the program a practical supplement to internal department guidance.

FREE ADMISSION

Bar advocates will earn 2 CLE credits.

Speakers

- Michael W. Morrissey, Norfolk District Attorney
- James C. Kennedy, Counsel to the Massachusetts House of Representatives
- Sarah Joss, General Counsel, Probation Department
- Zachary Hillman, General Counsel, Administrative Office of the District Court
