Death in Cohasset Harbor not suspicious

Contact: D.Traub, 781-830-4917

The death of a 38-year old Cohasset man when his GMC pickup truck entered Cohasset harbor early this morning does not appear to be suspicious.

The identity of the sole occupant of the vehicle was Keith P. Herzog, 38, of Cohasset.

Cohasset Police were first notified of the truck entering the water shortly before 5 a.m. Cohasset Police and Fire Departments and the Plymouth County Technical Rescue Team worked through the morning and the vehicle was removed from the water at 9:48 a.m.

While the investigation is ongoing, it is believed that Mr. Herzog was alone in the truck as the truck traveled the length of the Cohasset Harbor Dock before entering the water.

The Office of the Chief Medical Examiner has accepted Mr. Herzog for autopsy. Massachusetts State Police Crime Scene Services documented the scene. The investigation by Cohasset Police and Massachusetts State Police detectives attached to the Norfolk District Attorney's office is ongoing, but there is no evidence of foul play at this time.
