Fatal stabbing investigation in Weymouth

Contact: D. Traub, 781-830-4917

Weymouth Police and Massachusetts State Police detectives attached to Norfolk District Attorney Michael W. Morrissey's Office are investigating a fatal stabbing in Weymouth last night.

The victim, 19-year-old Ryan M. Martin, was stabbed, allegedly by a party known to him, during a gathering in a wooded area near 83 Colonels Drive in Weymouth. He was transported to South Shore Hospital but he did not survive his injuries.

The investigation is ongoing and further information is expected to be released over the course of the day. Officials believe there is no credible ongoing threat to the public associated with this incident.
