Not Guilty Plea in Dover Murder

Contact: D. Traub, 781-830-4917

Ingolf Tuerk entered a plea of not guilty to the single count of murder at his arraignment before the Hon. Michael Pomarole this morning (May 18, 2020). Judge Pomarole adopted the recommendation from ADA Lisa Beatty that he be held without bail. Judge Pomarole ordered a June 10 status date.

Tuerk was represented by Boston attorney Howard Cooper.

During the bail argument, Assistant District Attorney Beatty told the judge that the medical examiner had reported injuries and bruising consistent with strangulation and the statements from the defendant to police had led them to recovering McLean's remains in a small pond off Walpole Street in Dover, not far from the family home.

All defendants are presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.
