Shifting Gears: The Blunt Truth about Marijuana and Driving

AAA Northeast is pleased to offer this program that brings the facts about marijuana impairment and driving performance to teens at or near driving age.

You might have heard that people who recently consumed THC – the chemical in marijuana that gets you high – can drive safely. Or that marijuana is nowhere near as dangerous than alcohol when it comes to driving. Maybe someone you know has even said they drive better while high. They might feel more relaxed and less anxious. And that would be safer, right?

At AAA, we've been studying this topic for years and know the latest facts and research. When you're done with this program, you'll know how to answer these questions. You'll also be challenged to re-think your notions about what being a safe driver really means and develop strategies to avoid putting yourself in a dangerous situation.
