UPDATE July 6, 2025: The third person involved in the two-car crash Saturday on Randolph Avenue in Milton, Charles A. Ocitti, 47, of Mattapan, succumbed to his injuries at a Boston hospital earlier today. He was the driver of the Mercedes Benz.

The occupants of the Toyota Corolla are the driver, Diane Myers, 71, of Dorchester, and her son Jonathan Myers, 39, the passenger.

07/05/2025 - Milton Police, Massachusetts State Police, and the Norfolk District Attorney's Office are investigating a motor vehicle crash that resulted in two fatalities Saturday afternoon, Norfolk District Attorney Michael W. Morrissey and Milton Police Chief John King said.

Police responded shortly before 4:30 p.m. to the intersection of Randolph Avenue and Hillside Street where a Mercedes Benz GLB 250 traveling north on Randolph Avenue collided with a Toyota Corolla traveling in the opposite direction.

The operator of the Corolla, a 71-year-old woman, and her passenger, a 39-year-old man, succumbed to their injuries.

Their names are not being released pending notification of next of kin.

The driver and lone occupant of the Mercedes Benz, a 47-year-old man, suffered serious injuries and was transported to a Boston trauma center.

A third vehicle was struck by debris from the initial crash but was not involved in the collision.

The crash remains under investigation by Milton Police with the assistance of the Massachusetts State Police Collision Analysis and Reconstruction Section and the Massachusetts State Police Crime Scene Services Section.
